HISTORIC DEADWOOD ACTIVITY SHEET

Saloon #10

Where it all Started & Where it all still happens!

Bold Murder during broad daylight in a boomer's saloon on a near hopeless gold claim- all keys in the pages of Deadwood's loud and lusty past evolved into the now world famous Saloon #10. Where Wild Bill Hickok met his demise and the sawdust still covers the floor.

For more than a century, the Legendary Old Style Saloon No. 10 has defined the historic town of Deadwood. Thousands of artifacts and antiques grace the walls and ceiling. The faces of history live in hundreds of historical photographs of Deadwood's most famous and infamous characters. It remains the "go to" experience for locals and visitors alike to step back into Deadwood's colorful past.

WILD BILL CONNECT THE DOTS

WILD BILL HICKOK

James Butler Hickok arrived in Deadwood, along with Colorado Charlie Utter and Calamity Jane, in July of 1876. He was a well-known gambler and gunslinger, participated in many shootouts before coming to Deadwood. He was killed on August 2, 1876 in Nuttal & Mann's Saloon when Jack McCall shot him from behind while playing poker.

You can see Wild Bill's gravesite at Mount Moriah Cemetery. You can also find a variety of Wild Bill statues, painting and likenesses throughout modern-day Deadwood.
